

Bottle Cosy

It's almost summer. And with the warmer days comes again the great desire to have a picnic. When we recently wanted to picnic with friends, I did not have protection for our glass bottle. Because when we picnic nearby, we always just pack everything in our trolley. And I decided to crochet a bottle-cosy as soon as possible. I have written down the instructions for this. Maybe you have a picnic and you need a little niceness to protect your glass bottle.
